Election of the Board of Directors

Pursuant to the Consolidated Financial Act and to the corporate bylaws, members of the Board of Directors are elected by the ordinary Shareholders' Meeting on the basis of a slate-vote mechanism.

The slates of candidates for the office of Director may be filed by the Shareholders who, alone or jointly with other Shareholders, result to own at least 0.5% of the Company's share capital. The ownership of the minimum shareholding in the share capital of the Company required for the purpose of filing the slates is determined according to the shares that are registered in the name of the Shareholder on the date on which the slates are filed with the Company. In any case, pursuant to Article 14.3, lett. c), of the corporate bylaws, for the purposes of identifying the Directors to be elected, the candidates of the slates that have obtained a number of votes amounting to less than half of the percentage required for filing the same slates shall not be taken into account.

Each Shareholder shall not file, also jointly with other Shareholders, more than one slate only and each candidate shall be included only in one slate, under penalty of ineligibility.

The preparation, filing and publication of the slates shall be made in accordance with the modalities and conditions provided for or referred to in Articles 14 and 14-bis of the corporate bylaws, to which reference is made for what not expressly specified below.

In relation to the preparation of the slates and the composition of the Board of Directors, it shall be noted in particular that:

- the candidates for the office of Director shall meet: (i) the requirements of integrity provided for by Article 147-quinquies of the Consolidated Financial Act, which refers to those established for statutory auditors of listed companies by Regulation of the Minister of Justice issued pursuant to Article 148, paragraph 4, of the same Consolidated Financial Act (in relation to which reference is currently made to Article 2 of the Decree of the Minister of Justice, no. 162 of March 30, 2000); and (ii) the requirements provided for by Article 14-bis of the corporate bylaws;
- since Enel S.p.A. holds a qualified indirect shareholding in the share capital of Mooney Group S.p.A., a company controlling an e-money institution, as well as a qualified shareholding in the captive reinsurance company Enel Reinsurance – Compagnia di riassicurazione S.p.A., the candidates for the office of Director shall also comply with the requirements and the criteria set forth (i) in Article 25 of Legislative Decree of September 1, 1993 no. 385, as referred to in Article 114-quinquies.3, paragraph 1-ter, of the same Legislative Decree, and the relevant implementing legislation, including the requirements of integrity set forth in Article 1 of the Decree of the Ministry of Treasury, Budget and Economic Planning of March 18, 1998, no. 144 and in (ii) Article 77 of Legislative Decree of September 7, 2005, no. 209 and Articles 2, paragraph 3, and 5 of the Decree of the Ministry of Economic Development of November 11, 2011, no. 220;

- pursuant to Article 14.3, paragraph 1, of the corporate bylaws, within each slate, candidates must be numbered progressively;
- pursuant to Article 14.3, paragraph 2, of the corporate bylaws, each slate must include at least two candidates that meet the requirements of independence established by the law (i.e. those provided for statutory auditors of listed companies), distinctly mentioning such candidates and listing one of them as first in the slate;
- with regard to the independence requirements of candidates, the Q&A instrumental to the application of the Italian Corporate Governance Code (the “Corporate Governance Code”), which Enel S.p.A. complies with, recommends that the lists should also contain an indication of whether the candidates qualify as independent according to the provisions of Recommendation no. 7 of the same Code. In this regard, while referring to the provisions of Recommendation no. 7 of the Corporate Governance Code regarding circumstances that affect, or appear to affect, a director's independence, Shareholders are invited to take note of the quantitative and qualitative criteria for assessing the significance of any commercial, financial or professional relationships and any additional remuneration adopted by the Board of Directors for the purpose of assessing the independence of its non-executive members. For a description of such criteria please refer to the explanatory report of the Board of Directors on the sixth item on the agenda available in the relevant section of the Company's website (www.enel.com) dedicated to this Meeting;
- pursuant to Article 14.3, paragraph 3, of the corporate bylaws and Article 147-ter, paragraph 1-ter, of the Consolidated Financial Act, slates which contain a number of candidates equal to or above three shall also include candidates belonging to different genders, in order to ensure the presence in the new Board of Directors of at least two fifths of members of the less-represented gender, rounded, in the case of a fractional number, to the higher unit. In particular:

- a) slates with three candidates shall include one candidate of the less-represented gender, listed in one of the first two places of the slate;
 - b) slates with four candidates shall (i) include two candidates for each gender, and (ii) list in the first two places of the slate candidates of different gender;

 - e) slates with seven candidates shall (i) include three candidates of the less-represented gender, (ii) list a candidate of the less-represented gender in either the first or second place of the slate, and (iii) list the other two candidates of the less-represented gender in the first six places of the slate;
 - f) slates with eight candidates shall (i) include four candidates for each gender, (ii) list in the first two places of the slate candidates of different gender, and (iii) list in the last two places of the slate candidates of different gender;
 - g) slates with more than eight candidates shall (i) include at least four candidates of the less-represented gender, (ii) list a candidate of the less-represented gender in one of the first two places of the slate, (iii) list other two candidates of the less-represented gender in the first six places of the slate, (iv) list one more candidate of the less-represented gender between the seventh and the ninth place of the slate, while (v) further candidates of the less-represented gender (if any) can be freely listed within the slate in the places following the ninth place;
- in the event of early termination of the Directors' office, Article 14.5 of the corporate bylaws provides for a mechanism of cooptation requiring that the replacement, whenever possible, is made by appointing, in progressive order, persons drawn from the slate to which the Director who ceased from its office belonged, provided that said persons are still eligible and willing to accept the office, and in any case in compliance with the applicable laws on independence of Directors and gender balance;
 - in line with the Recommendation no. 15 of the Corporate Governance Code, the Board of Directors has adopted a specific policy regarding the maximum number of offices that its members may hold in administrative and/or supervisory bodies in other companies of significant size, in order to ensure that the persons concerned have sufficient time to effectively perform their office as members of the Board of Directors of Enel S.p.A.; the document containing such policy is available at the Company's website (www.enel.com).

In view of preparing the slates, Shareholders are also invited to examine the specific "Guidelines of the Board of Directors of Enel S.p.A. to Shareholders on the size and composition of the new Board of Directors", expressed by the expiring Board of Directors, upon consultation with the Nomination and Compensation Committee, in line with the Recommendation no. 23 of the Corporate Governance Code. Such Guidelines also consider the "Diversity Policy of the Board of Directors of Enel S.p.A.", adopted by the same Board of Directors on January 18, 2018. The abovementioned Guidelines and Policy are available for consultation at the Company's website (www.enel.com). Those who intend to submit a slate containing a number of candidates exceeding half of the members to be elected are invited to provide adequate information, within the documentation submitted for the slate's filing, on the compliance of the same slate with the aforesaid Guidelines and to indicate their candidate for the office of Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Pursuant to Article 147-ter, paragraph 1-bis, of the Consolidated Financial Act, the slates of candidates, together with the required documentation, shall be filed by Shareholders no later than twenty-five days before the Meeting (i.e., within April 17, 2026). The slates shall be filed by e-mail to listecca@enel.com under the reference "Filing of the Board of Directors slates".

Slates shall be filed together with a declaration containing the information on the identity of the Shareholders filing them and their overall shareholding in the Company's share capital. The notice of the authorized intermediary certifying the ownership of such shareholding, may also be provided to the Company after the filing of the slates but, in any case, within twenty-one days before the date of the Meeting (i.e., within April 21, 2026, which represents the deadline for the Company for publishing the slates).

Slates shall be filed with the Company also together with: (i) the statements by which the individual candidates accept their candidacy and certify, under their own responsibility, not to be in any situation of ineligibility and incompatibility and to meet the requirements provided by the applicable laws and corporate bylaws for their respective offices, as well as (ii) detailed information on the personal traits and professional qualifications of the candidates.

Finally, it should be noted that those filing a minority slate are addressees of the recommendations formulated by Consob in Communication no. DEM/9017893 of 26 February 2009.

For further information on the election of the Board of Directors, please see the explanatory report on the relevant item on the agenda.
