

PRESS RELEASE

ENEL IS THE OFFICIAL ENERGY PARTNER OF VENEZIA FC FOR THE 2026/2027 SEASON

Venice, October 7th, 2026 – Venezia FC announces its partnership with Enel for the 2026/2027 season. The Group, leader in the energy sector, will serve as the Club's Official Energy Partner and Premium Sponsor.

The partnership will see the Enel brand featured prominently both at the Ca' Venezia Training Center, the heart of the Club's activities, where it will appear on banners, as well as at the stadium, with visibility on pitchside LED boards during Venezia FC home matches. Enel's energy will take to the field alongside the "Arancionoverdi" and their supporters, bringing to life a collaboration built on a shared passion for sport, commitment, and determination.

For Enel, the decision to partner with Venezia FC stems from its desire to support a team that is deeply connected to its city, which represents a jewel of Italy's cultural heritage and a globally recognized symbol. This partnership further demonstrates the company's commitment to supporting leading Italian sporting organizations, with the aim of building lasting relationships and generating value for the communities in which it operates.

This new collaboration strengthens Enel's presence in the world of football and reinforces its position as the energy company with the highest number of partnerships in Italy's Serie A championship.

Enel is a multinational power company and a leading integrated player in the global power and renewables markets, present in 27 countries worldwide.

At global level, it is the largest renewable player, the foremost electricity distribution network player by number of grid customers served and the biggest retail operator by customer base^[1].

Enel generates electricity with more than 92 GW of total capacity. Enel Green Power, the Group's renewables arm, has a total capacity of 67 GW and a generation mix that includes wind, solar, geothermal, and hydroelectric power, as well as energy storage facilities, installed in Europe, the Americas, Africa, Asia, and Oceania.

Enel Grids, the Group's global business line dedicated to the management of the electricity distribution service worldwide, delivers electricity through a network of 1.9 million kilometers with more than 69 million end users connected to its distribution grids. Enel Commercial is the Group's arm dedicated to customers around the world with the aim of effectively providing products and services based on their energy needs and encouraging them towards a more conscious and sustainable use of energy. It provides electricity, gas and integrated services to around 54 million customers globally including households, enterprises, industries and public administrations. In addition, it offers flexibility services aggregating over 11 GW and has more than 35,000 owned public charging points for electric mobility.

^[1] Enel's leadership in the different categories is defined by comparison with FY2025 data and results of relevant comparable listed companies, excluding those with predominant state control.

VENEZIA FC

Venezia FC is the professional football club of Venice. The historic Club is renowned for its pursuit of sporting excellence and integrity, combined with its commitment to social responsibility, community development, art, and the preservation of Venice. Located on the lagoon island of Sant'Elena, the Club plays at the Stadio Pier Luigi Penzo, the second-oldest stadium in Italy, situated next to the Venice Biennale district. For much of its history, Venezia has competed in the top two tiers of the Italian football league system. One of the Club's most significant achievements was winning the Coppa Italia in the 1940–41 season. More recently, Venezia was promoted from Serie D to Serie C, then to Serie B between 2015 and 2020, and finally to Serie A in 2021 and 2024. Venezia secured promotion in the 2025/26 season and will return to Serie A in 2026.
